Background and brief summary of our services

DCM Electronics was established in 2000 to provide professional active and passive fire protection services to businesses across the Western Cape. Our offices are situated in Century City, Cape Town but we cover the entire Western Cape.

We offer our clients a wealth of knowledge and years of experience, and are committed to providing High quality services.

We aim to conduct our services with honesty and integrity. When these elements are combined with our highly trained team of SAQCC certified technicians, it allows our clients to have peace of mind in knowing that the services we offer are of high quality.

We specialise in, but are not limited to, the installation of fire detection alarms, fire extinguishers, gas suppression systems, fire stopping, and evacuation systems. We value the safety of lives and the protection of properties.

We are committed to providing our clients with cost effective services, which will suit their individual needs without compromising on quality. We also aim to establish long-term relationships with our clients.
